Frequently Asked Questions

- Who can take a franchise?
 - Anyone who wants to build a genuine source of income through a reliable digital business can become a franchise partner with Miniwebsite.in. Whether you're a working professional, homemaker, freelancer, or an existing business owner—if you're honest, motivated, and ready to grow, this opportunity is for you.
- Is it necessary to have a GST number?
 - No, having a GST number is not mandatory to take a Miniwebsite.in franchise. However, if you already have one, it can be helpful for billing and tax purposes. We welcome all individuals, with or without GST, to join our growing network of digital partners.
- Is it necessary to have an office and staff?
 - Not at all. You can run this business completely from home or any location of your choice. An office or team is not required—this franchise model is designed to be lean, low-cost, and flexible, making it perfect for solo entrepreneurs or anyone looking for a side income.

Frequently Asked Questions

- Is technical knowledge like coding or designing required?
• No technical skills are needed. You don't need to know web design, coding, or any IT tools. Our system is 100% no-code and user-friendly, and we provide full training and support to help you succeed even if you're a complete beginner.
- How much can I earn as a Minewebsite.in franchise partner?
• Your income potential is flexible and depends on your effort. Many of our partners earn a steady monthly income by reselling mini websites and digital services. With high demand and attractive margins, you can grow this into a full-time business or a solid side hustle.
- What kind of training or on boarding will I receive?
• We provide complete on boarding support including training videos, step-by-step guides, and live assistance. Even if you're starting with zero experience, you'll be fully equipped to market, sell, and manage the services confidently.

Frequently Asked Questions

- Will I get marketing materials or tools to promote the business?
 - Yes! We provide ready-to-use digital marketing content like brochures, sample websites, posters, and social media creative. These materials help you promote the services effectively and save time on content creation.
- Do I need to make any additional investment apart from the franchise fee?
 - No, there are no hidden charges. Once you join, your one-time low investment covers everything needed to get started—no office, inventory, or tech setup required. It's truly a plug-and-play digital business.
- Why should I choose Minewebsite.in for a partner?
 - Minewebsite.in offers a low-cost, high-demand business opportunity in the rapidly growing digital space. You don't need technical skills, and we offer full support, flexible working, and a proven business model—making it one of the easiest and most scalable digital franchises available today.

Frequently Asked Questions

- Is this franchise suitable for part-time or side income?
 - Yes, this franchise is perfect for anyone looking to start a side hustle or earn part-time income. You can work flexibly from home, during weekends, or alongside your existing job or business—there's no fixed schedule or pressure.
- Can I hire others to help me scale this business?
 - Definitely. As you grow, you can build a small team to help you manage leads, promote online, or deliver services. Since it's a digital business, scaling is easy without the burden of infrastructure or large staff.
- Is this business future-ready or just a trend?
 - Mini websites and digital presence are no longer optional—they're essential. Every business, professional, and freelancer needs an online profile. This is a sustainable, future-proof business model with increasing demand year after year.

Frequently Asked Questions

- How do I handle customer queries or technical issues?
- You don't need to worry—our backend team handles all technical issues and customer support. You just focus on promoting the service and acquiring clients, while we ensure smooth delivery and satisfaction.

- Will I get a personal point of contact for support?
- Yes, once you become a partner, you'll be assigned a dedicated support representative who will guide you, help resolve issues quickly, and ensure your success as a franchisee.
